TTA Family Day WEDNESDAY MARCH 18, 2020

We are doing it again! Become a TTA Junior Journalist or Video Specialist, learn these life skills that are so helpful to our seniors, who are ready to preserve their life stories for their family's history.

Chinese Paper Folding (Origami) Harrison Ho Tom will teach you how to make beautiful keepsakes for your family and friends.

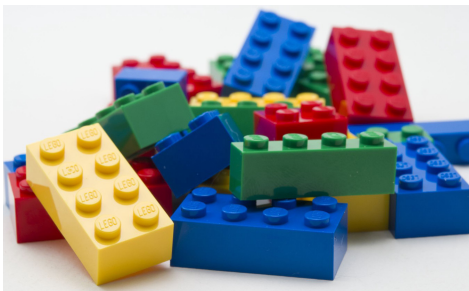

Chinese Brush Painting - Learn how to write your family name using this ancient art, take home your artwork and start a new hobby.

If you sing, play the piano, violin, ukulele or guitar, let us know and bring your favourite music sheets to entertain us. LEGO building - Mom, Dad, Grandparents all family and friends can help the little ones work on their skills. Practice your Table Hockey; Basketball dunking skills, this may help get you to playing with the Raptors. We have puzzles, crayon colouring and books to entertain toddlers. It's Spring and time to wake up from winter! Start growing things indoor and out, from seeds to tiny plants. Truly, something for all ages.

The Diaspora and your family tree - How did we get here? We are Chinese ...right? But we came from someplace else, not China! How did that happen? As for our map of the "Hakka Odyssey," and trace the global footprint of the Hakka people.

How to Digitize your family photos. Don't wait! A flood; frozen pipes in the basement; oh no! Not a fire. Put this at the top of your "bucket list," and let's talk about it.

Join a Needlework and Crafts Workshop - See Christine who will help you with new ideas for hobbies or good old knitting, crochette and sewing. How to replace a button on my favorite shirt without bothering Mom, Dad or Jia Gung/Jia Poh or A-Gung/A-Poh. Sign-up for a class to start in the spring.
